

User Interview V2

Interviewee Name:

1. Warm-up_the main source of news getting

- a. What kind of news or information you would like to check when you realized that piece of information is not accurate?
- b. Which one do you care more about the wrong interpretation of data, distortion of research result, wrong events report, inaccurate result evaluation?
- c. If you feel in the passage, there is something you want to check to make sure the credibility, do you always check right after seeing or listening to the piece of information, check it after the paragraph, check after finishing reading or listening, take a note and check later?
- d.
- e. Do you watch TV or listen to the radio in your daily life? What would you like to have? What is your purpose?
- f. What is the main source of the news in your life?
- g. Why do you choose to use that?
- h. What is the most recent moment for you to think about, whether or not the information you just listened is true?
- i. Do you trust those resources?
- j. Play a piece of news from CNN, Fox, and NPR
- k. Do you listen to the
- l. What is your current solution for reducing fake news around you?
- m. What functions or products you expect?

Potential scenario: election debate, daily news

2. Technical thoughts collection_fact checking

- a. How do you check the true or false of a piece of information now?